

OROZCO IS HEADED NORTH WITH ARMY OF "COLORADOS"

Reports in El Paso Indicate He Is Trying to Reach Western Chihuahua.

Pascual Orozco, said to be at the head of 5000 "colorados," is rapidly making his way north, according to advices received here Friday. A week ago Orozco attacked and captured the city of Ciudad Leon, in the state of Guanajuato. Ciudad Leon is a place of 60,000 inhabitants and is one of the most important cities in central Mexico. After taking the city, according to consular reports, he was beaten off by "Constitutionalist" troops, local Carranza officials report.

Following his defeat at Ciudad Leon, Orozco fled into the state of Jalisco and will attempt to make his way in a westerly direction to western Chihuahua, which has never been strongly fortified and has recently been the scene of the depredations of the Guadalupe and Gomez bands. It is reported that he will make his way through Durango to the west of the Sierra Madre.

NEW REVOLT IN MEXICO BEGINS

Villa Believed to Be Selected as the Chief Commander of the Troops.

CONFISCATION IS INVESTIGATED

Acts of Villa's Men in Chihuahua Are Being Probed by the United States.

CARRANZA officials here deny emphatically reports from Washington that Carranza authorities in Tampico have stopped a cargo of ammunition from reaching Gen. Villa, the northern division commander. Villa's representatives in Juarez also declared that Villa had received the ammunition landed by the steamer Hatteras at Tampico.

Carranza sent Villa 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition and 500,000 pesos from Tampico on August 6 by Col. Leopoldo J. Gallardo, of the Carranza brigade according to "Constitutionalist" consul Rafael E. Musquiz, who cites this as evidence that there is no friction between Carranza and Villa.

"I have just talked with Col. Gallardo, who took the ammunition and money to Villa at Chihuahua from Tampico," consul Musquiz said Friday. "The colonel denies that there is any possibility of a break between the two leaders or even any friction. Had there been it is not probable that Gen. Carranza would have sent Villa 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition and a half million pesos."

Col. Gallardo also carried important state documents from Carranza to Villa, which is also an indication that the relations between the first chief and the commander of the north are most agreeable. Villa sent a message to Carranza, congratulating him on the attitude he assumed with the Carranza peace commission, which shows that the northern commander is not in any way estranged from the first chief.

These are facts right from the front and deny all the wild rumors to the contrary.

Today saw no change in the threatening outlook for an early division between Villa and Carranza. Rumors that Chihuahua, Durango, Zacatecas, Sinaloa and Sonora states would combine their armies and give Gen. Villa the leadership in case of an open breach with the Carranza forces, gained ground here today. Observers predicted that Carranza would not be powerful enough to prevent this separation.

In Sonora state, civil governor Maytorena is already openly in the field against Carranza's soldiers, who form the state garrison. The five north and central states which would act together in case of a revolt could place 50,000 men in the field, according to the claim of Mexican military men here. Villa himself has a force of 10,000 men, it is declared.

Carranza Goes to Capital.
Carranza left La Tula, Hidalgo, late yesterday, according to advices received here today by "Constitutionalist" consul Rafael Musquiz. It is the belief among "Constitutionalists" here that the revolutionary "first chief" has already joined Gen. Alvaro Obregon, whose advance guard is within 12 miles of Mexico City.

The revolt against the Carranza government in Sonora state is the first

NEW REPUBLIC IN NORTHERN MEXICO IS NEWEST PLAN

Demand For Surrender of Nogales, Sonora, Said to Have Villa's Backing.

Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 14.—A new Mexican republic, referred to for the present tentatively as "Republica del Norte," is now being planned by Mexican leaders not in sympathy with Carranza and the faction of the "Constitutionalists" whom he represents, it is claimed. Francisco Villa is declared to be looked up to as the leader of the "constitutionalist" faction with the "Constitutionalist" office with the Nogales, Sonora, for the surrender of the town, is reported to have been made in the name of Villa. Whether or not his name was used authoritatively is not known. The border port is now confronted by the possibility of an attack by a column of governor Maytorena's Yaquis, en route from Hermosillo.

Four States to Form Republic.
The new republic plan is said to embrace the states of Chihuahua, Durango, Sonora and Sinaloa. Embassadors, alleged to be representatives of Villa, have been busy in Sonora and Sinaloa several weeks past, circulating among the people. Governor Felipe Rivera of Sinaloa, now at Mazatlan, is said to be in contact with the leaders of the movement.

Revolt Proceeds Arrests.
The arrest of Gen. Salvador Alvarado, commanding the "Constitutionalist" forces in Sonora, effected by Maytorena at Guaymas Wednesday, is reported to have been preceded by a revolt headed by two colonels who refused to obey orders of Gen. Alvarado.

Won't Meet Mediators.
Peace envoys who left Nogales, Sonora, with the hope of making peace between Maytorena and the "Constitutionalist" military forces as represented by Gen. Obregon and his subordinate Col. Elias Calles, are reported to have been turned back north of Hermosillo with the statement that Maytorena would not meet the leaders of their offices. The commission has not yet returned to the border.

Train Service Is Limited.
Because of the outbreak, the Southern Pacific of Mexico has canceled its recent re-established train service, and no trains are running between Hermosillo and Guaymas toward Hermosillo, which was seized by Maytorena at Hermosillo. Censors were placed on the telegraph wires.

Calles Forces Moving South.
Though secrecy is being maintained in Nogales, Sonora, regarding the movement of the "Constitutionalist" troops, it is reported that Col. Calles is sending a strong force south to intercept and attack Maytorena's forces.

move in what observers here believe to be a plan for a counter revolution against the yet unsuccessful "Constitutionalist" movement.

Villa Is Consulted.
A commission representing Maytorena, the insurgent governor of Sonora, who yesterday arrested Carranza's military commander, Gen. Alvarado, passed through El Paso on Tuesday. It is believed after a conference with Gen. Villa.

In addition to the Sonora trouble, it was learned that Pastor Romo, the governor of Durango, had been ousted by the Arieta brothers, military leaders of that state, and at present was a refugee under Villa's protection at Torreon. The visit of Gen. Villa at Nieves, Durango, was considered significant in view of the situation in Durango, which adjoins Chihuahua to the south.

Battle Expected.
A pitched battle at Durango City, between the forces of the Arieta brothers and those of Tomas Urbina is looked for hourly, according to advices received here at noon Friday. These advices indicate that the split between the two factions, which resulted in bloodshed some days ago, has not been patched up by Villa or that the northern leader has not yet had time to see the heads of the two factions and bring them to a settlement.

Durango is held by the Arieta brothers, who are said to have in the neighborhood of 5000 men. Urbina, it is reported, is about as well off in numbers, but will be at a considerable disadvantage, as the city is strongly fortified.

Confiscation Probed.
As the result of strong representations by the state department, number of cases of what is claimed was virtually confiscation of American property in and about Chihuahua city, are being investigated by Villa officials.

What was considered one of the most flagrant cases, that of the practical confiscation of the American Grocery company in Chihuahua, has already been satisfactorily settled. The grocery company was originally owned by Juan Creel and J. W. Thompson. About a year ago Thompson bought Creel's interest in the business for a sum said to be about $25,000. Previous to this Villa had issued an order to the effect that all acts of confiscation would be worthless in the eyes of "Constitutionalist" authorities.

Famous Case Dropped.
On the strength of this order, Villa officials held that there has been no sale by Creel, one of the leading Clientelists of his interest in the store and that as all Clientelistic property was being confiscated, the officials had the right to confiscate half of the grocery company. Thompson is said to have been given the option of again paying the $25,000 for a half interest in the store, but this time to the Villistas. This he refused to do and the store was closed.

Now, however, on representations of American consul Marion Lettich, the Villa officials have stated that the case will be dropped until properly authorized legal officials are installed throughout the state, at which time the case will be tried and settled. In the meantime, Mr. Thompson has been invited to return and resume operation. A number of other cases of alleged confiscation of American property are now under investigation and a report is expected early next week.

SAYS VILLA IS NOT INVOLVED IN SONORA

Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 14.—Francisco Villa will not mix in the Maytorena-Calles feud, but will adhere to his allegiance to Carranza, according to Jorge Obregon, secretary and treasurer of the Sonora land and war tax commission, who returned Thursday from El Paso, where he went to hurry shipment of arms and forms to Obregon's army. He said Obregon would not enter Mexico City with his army intenders.

INDIANA MAN MAY BE U. S. AMBASSADOR TO MEXICO

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute, Ind., is foremost in president Wilson's consideration for ambassador to Mexico when the situation is such that a representative can be sent to Mexico City.

Officials said today they expected no immediate action.

U. S. TO MAKE UP REVENUE DEFICIT

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—Arrangements for war taxes in the United States to supplement falling customs revenues and how they shall be levied are being held in abeyance until the situation confronting the treasury becomes more clearly defined.

At another conference today between chairman Simmons of the senate finance committee, chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, and secretary Mellon, it was agreed that any deficit should be made up by additional internal revenue taxes but it was decided to hold another conference next week and the meanwhile reports from all Atlantic coast custom houses will indicate what the government must meet.

Meanwhile chairman Underwood will get the ways and means committee ready to act on a plan.

Andreas Hofer—The Inn-keeper Patriot of the Tyrol

TO THIS peasant-leader Liberty was as much the breath of life as it is to the strong-winged eagles of the Alps. To achieve it for himself and his mountain brothers he gladly laid down his life. No less a personality than Napoleon conquered him, and it was because he feared him that the Great Emperor ordered Hofer shot. Every atom of Andreas Hofer loved Liberty. He demanded it for himself and willingly gave it to others. In this respect he is no different than are our thousands of Tyrolean citizens. Personal and National Liberty to those of Tyrolean blood is a religion. To a man they will fight for it and to a man they will die for it. When asked to vote for Prohibition they do as would do the great patriot Hofer—VOTE AGAINST IT. Thou shalt NOT eat this—thou shalt NOT drink that—is insolent legislation to those of Tyrolean blood. Anheuser-Busch are proud to serve their thousands of Tyrolean patrons. For 57 years these people have been moderate users of their honestly-brewed beers. BUDWEISER is a favorite wherever they reside. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to meet the constantly increasing demand for BUDWEISER. Its sales exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles. ANHEUSER-BUSCH • ST.
